

Capacity Concept and TTR Implementation Manager

RailNetEurope (RNE) is an association of European Infrastructure Managers (IMs) and Allocation Bodies (ABs) with the common goal of facilitating international traffic on the European rail infrastructure and increasing the efficiency of the IMs'/ABs' processes. RNE's Joint Office (JO) is located in Vienna with approximately 70 employees from many different European countries.

Detailed information can be found on RNE's website: www.rne.eu

To boost European railways' competitiveness, we currently implement the innovative processes and IT as designed in the Timetable Redesign (TTR) programme. A new legal framework is expected by 2025, which is expected to enhance the number of tasks for RNE regarding international alignment and implementation effort. A new RNE Working Group "EuroLink" will provide rail capacity concepts with a long-time view on how to define international rail traffic. For these purposes, we are now looking for a Capacity Concept and TTR Implementation Manager:

Your duties / responsibilities

- Chairing the Working Group "EuroLink", leading respective projects of that Working Group, following up on the developments (e.g. by creating netgraphs) and preparing results for endorsement at RNE
- Conducting activities to monitor and report on the implementation of agreed Capacity Management processes and IT systems in Europe, including the preparation of mitigation measures
- Providing communication material regarding Capacity Management to/in cooperation with the RNE Communication Team
- Supporting the Capacity Management team in the preparation, monitoring and reporting for funding activities

Your qualifications & skills

- Sound understanding and experiences in the field of rail infrastructure capacity planning
- Basic understanding of complexities of the European environment for railways
- Project management experiences
- Experiences in leading projects or working groups
- Experiences in drafting netgraphs for railway concepts will be considered a plus

- Strong English language skills at negotiation level (C1)
- Excellent communication skills in an international context
- Proficiency in Microsoft 365, especially Word, Excel, PowerPoint, MS Teams, and SharePoint

Are you interested in the position?

Please, send your CV together with a letter of motivation (including possible starting date and salary expectations) to Ms Eva Raymond.

We kindly ask you to take note that RNE cannot cover applicants' travel expenses for interviewing processes.

GDPR note:

Your job application requires submission of personal information to RNE. According to our internal rules, the RNE Managing Board shall appoint the staff of the Joint Office in Vienna. As an association of more than 30 companies around Europe, RNE members provide their funding and are involved in its operations. With this said we inform all job applicants about the above particularities. Therefore, RNE human resources personnel (or HR agency on its behalf) and RNE management considering your application and RNE members will have access to your personal information included in your CV.

This is our way to find a balance between transparency in our organisation and your privacy. Thus, the applicants are explicitly asked to consent to this and with the submission of your job application, we consider you agree and give explicit consent on the above distributions of your CV to the RNE Managing Board members and the GA representatives.

In other words, by submitting your application, you consent to the processing of your personal data in the above way, and if hired, to the ongoing processing of your personal data for administrative purposes in connection with your employment.
